Regulatory Specialist
Wek'èezhii Land and Water Board
Northwest Territories

If you are interested in joining a high-performing team in a fast-paced, progressive, and dynamic work-place environment, we encourage you to apply for the Regulatory Specialist position with the Wek'èezhii Land and Water Board (Board).

The Board was established through the Tlicho Land Claim and Self-Government Agreement to regulate the use of land, water, and the deposit of waste within Wek'èezhii. The Tlicho People, have strong, traditional ties to the land, water, and wildlife, so ensuring responsible use of land and water for the benefit of Tlicho People is of paramount importance.

The Regulatory Specialist is responsible for coordinating submissions made to the Wek'èezhii Land and Water Board, managing public reviews, conducting preliminary screenings, liaising with government, industry, First Nations, and other stakeholders, and carrying out technical reviews on various types of submissions.

The successful applicant will have a relevant degree with related experience, as well as the following competencies: strong technical writing ability, strong written and oral communications skills, project and time management, cultural awareness, and an understanding of relevant environmental legislation. Education and experience equivalencies will be considered.

This challenging opportunity includes a competitive compensation and benefits package. Interested candidates are invited to apply in confidence by midnight on Sunday, May 19, 2019 to:
